A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency. 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

Notice of Application for Letters Patent.

Notice is hereby given that on the 15th day of March, 1905, we, the undersigned, will apply to His Excellency N. B. Broward, Governor of the State of Florida, or his successor in office, for Letters Patent on the charter proposed below.

This 7th day of March, A. D. 1905.
PERRY M. COLSON,
J. R. COLSON,
JNO. W. BLANDING.

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF ALACHUA COUNTY ABSTRACT COMPANY.

I.—The name of this corporation shall be the ALACHUA COUNTY ABSTRACT COMPANY, and its principal place of business shall be Gainesville, Alachua county, Florida.

II.—The general nature of business to be transacted shall be to make abstracts and examinations of title to and the charges or liens upon real property; to abstract the public records relating to the title to and the charges and encumbrances including taxes upon real property, and to compile the same into convenient form for the purpose of facilitating the making of such abstracts and examinations of titles—to certify to the completeness and accuracy of such abstracts and the quality and condition of the title shown thereby and to guarantee to purchasers and lenders of money or credit upon the security of real property, the character and condition of the same. To take and hold the title to and possession of both real and personal property as trustees for others and as such to manage and control, lease, sell or mortgage the same. To act as agent for others in returning and paying taxes, for the purchase, lease or sale of lands or other property or any interest therein; to lend or hire the money, property or credit of itself or others with or without security and to receive and pay interest thereon and to take the title of both real and personal property as mortgage or trustee or security for the same; to buy, hold, sell or exchange real and personal property and real estate securities in its own right, to buy and to sell for itself and for others on commission real and personal property, stock of other corporations, bonds and securities on personal property; and to acquire by purchase or gift or its equivalent in capital stock, any title or abstract plant or other facilities for the conduct of its business, and to enjoy all the powers, privileges and franchises granted to like corporations under the laws of the State of Florida and otherwise to do and perform all such acts and exercise such powers as it may in the conduct of its said business.

III.—The amount of capital stock of this corporation shall be Ten Thousand Dollars, to be divided into one hundred shares of the par value of One Hundred Dollars per share. Said stock shall be paid in cash or property at a valuation to be fixed by the directors of the company at a meeting called for such purpose, upon the granting of this charter.

IV.—The term for which this corporation shall exist shall be ninety-nine years from the date of its corporate existence.

V.—The business of said corporation shall be conducted by a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer and a board of directors to consist of three members, and such other officers as may be created or appointed by the board of directors of said corporation; provided, the offices of secretary and treasurer may be vested in and the duties thereof exercised by one person. The business of said corporation shall be conducted by Perry M. Colson, president, J. W. Blanding, vice-president, and H. R. Colson, secretary and treasurer, until there shall have been an election of officers held by the stockholders of said corporation. The first annual meeting of the stockholders for the election of officers, adopting by-laws and transacting generally the business of the corporation, shall be held on the 15th day of June, A. D. 1905. There shall be an annual meeting of the stockholders on the first Tuesday in January of each and every year thereafter during the continuance of this charter.

VI.—The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation can at any time subject itself shall be twice the amount of its capital stock paid in.

VII.—The names and residences of the subscribers to the capital stock are: Perry M. Colson, Gainesville, Fla.—30 shares; H. R. Colson, Gainesville, Fla.—10 shares; J. W. Blanding, Gainesville, Fla.—10 shares.
